

Please do not mess with the New Jersey Do Not Call List law. There still are some calls sneaking through, but by and large the law has given us an improved quality of life by blocking the oppressive tide of telemarketing calls that we used to receive.